Till ready

Proudly our boys are marching a - long,
Out on the o - cean somewhere to - night,

None more brave than they, _____ For free - dom's right they're will - ing to Trans - ports sail - ing far, _____ Though hearts are lone - ly out on the fight, Hear the mu - sic play, _____ Mothers and sweet - hearts deep, Love's their guid - ing star, _____ But I know some day ten - der - ly glance Some dear ones face to view, _____ I too have ov - er the foam Af - ter the war is o'er, _____ Man - y brave some one in far off France Some one who's brave and true. _____

 boys will come sail-ing home My heart will ache no more. _____

The first system of the musical score features a vocal melody in G major (one flat) and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a range of approximately two octaves. The piano part consists of chords and moving lines in both hands.

Chorus

My heart to - night is some-where in France, Some-where a-cross the sea, _____

The chorus begins with a 2/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment starts with a p-f (piano-forte) dynamic marking. The melody is simple and catchy, with a clear harmonic structure.

And while my thoughts are on-ly of him I know he's thinking of me each day and long-ing

The second line of the chorus continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano part features a steady rhythm with some harmonic variation.

Just to kiss me as he used to, — 'Neath the sweet Mag-no-lia tree, — My heart to-

The third line of the chorus concludes the phrase. The piano accompaniment provides a solid harmonic foundation for the vocal line.

night is some-where in France And that's where I long to be. _____ be. _____

The fourth line of the chorus includes a repeat sign with first and second endings. The piano accompaniment continues to support the vocal melody.
